

Matthew G. Baggetta

519 Winthrop Mail Center
Cambridge, MA 02138
617-493-0024
baggetta@fas.harvard.edu

EDUCATION

Harvard University, Cambridge, MA
Ph.D., expected June 2009. Sociology
Special Field Examination Area: Civic Associations

Harvard University, Cambridge, MA
M.A., June 2005. Sociology
General Examination Fields: Political Sociology, Organizations, Stratification, Gender

University of Notre Dame, South Bend, IN
B.A. summa cum laude, May 2001. Sociology, with supplemental major in Computer Applications.
Phi Beta Kappa (Liberal Arts Honor Society). Alpha Kappa Delta (Sociology Honor Society).
Margaret Eisch Memorial Award, for the most outstanding senior Sociology major.

DISSERTATION

Civic Development in Apolitical Associations
Committee: Robert J. Sampson (chair), Christopher Winship, Marshall Ganz

FELLOWSHIPS AND GRANTS

Harvard University, Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, Dissertation Completion Fellowship, Spring 2009
Harvard University, Center for American Political Studies, Dissertation Completion Fellowship, Fall 2008
Harvard University, Department of Sociology, Conference Travel Grant, 2008
John F. Kennedy School of Government, Rappaport Institute for Greater Boston, Dissertation Research Grant, 2007
Harvard University, Center for American Political Studies, Dissertation Research Seed Grant, 2007
Harvard University, Department of Sociology, Conference Travel Grant, 2002
University of Notre Dame, Institute for Scholarship in the Liberal Arts, Thesis Research Grant, 1999

PUBLICATIONS

Baggetta, M. Civic Opportunities in Associations: Interpersonal Interaction, Governance Experience, and Institutional Relationships.
Journal manuscript, revised and resubmitted for second review.

Andrews, K., Ganz, M., Baggetta, M., Han, H., Lim, C. Membership, Leadership, and Voice: Civic Associations that Work.
Journal manuscript, revise and resubmit.

Han, H., Andrews, K., Ganz, M., Baggetta, M., Lim, C. Leadership, Organization, and Action: Understanding Public Recognition of Civic Associations. Journal manuscript, submitted and under review.

CONFERENCE PAPERS

Baggetta, M., Han, H., Andrews, K. 2008. Explaining Volunteer Leader Time Commitment: Civic Resources, Personal Motivations, and Organizational Characteristics. Paper accepted at the American Sociological Association Annual Meeting (Boston, August 2008).

Baggetta, M. 2008. Can Arts Associations Provide Civics Education?: Governance Experience, Community Relations, and Social Capital Opportunities in Choral Societies. Paper presented at the Inter-Ivy Sociology Symposium (Princeton University, March 2008).

Baggetta, M. 2008. Can You Sing Your Way to Good Citizenship?: Choral Societies as "Schools of Democracy." Paper presented at the Eastern Sociological Society Annual Meeting (New York, February 2008).

Baggetta, M. 2007. Citizen Formation in Apolitical Associations: A Study of Boston's Independent Choral Societies. Paper presented at the Inter-Ivy Sociology Symposium (Brown University, April 2007).

Han, H., Andrews, K., Ganz, M., Baggetta, M., Lim, C. 2006. Leadership, Organization, and Action: Explaining the Public Influence of Civic Associations. Paper presented at the American Political Science Association Annual Meeting (Philadelphia, September 2006).

Andrews, K., Ganz, M., Baggetta, M., Lim, C., Han, H. 2006. Explaining Effectiveness in Local Civic Associations. Paper presented at the American Sociological Association Annual Meeting (Montreal, August 2006).

Baggetta, M. 2005. It Takes an Organization. But What Kind?: Mobilizing Members and Volunteers in Environmentalist Organizations. Paper presented at the American Sociological Association Annual Meeting (Philadelphia, August 2005).

Andrews, K., Baggetta, M., Lim, C., Ganz, M., Han, H. 2005. Effectiveness in Voluntary Associations: Measuring Membership Engagement, Leadership Development, and Public Influence in Local Sierra Club Groups. Paper presented at the American Sociological Association Annual Meeting (Philadelphia, August 2005).

Andrews, K., Ganz, M., Baggetta, M., Han, H., Lim, C. 2005. Effectiveness in Civic Associations: Leader Development, Member Engagement, and Public Influence in the Sierra Club. Paper presented at the Eastern Sociological Society Annual Meeting (Washington, D.C., March 2005).

Han, H., Andrews, K., Baggetta, M., Ganz, M., Lim, C. 2004. What Makes Sierra Club Groups Effective?: A Research Project Exploring the Influence of Organization, Leaders, and Members on Organizational Effectiveness. Paper presented at American Political Science Association Annual Meeting (Chicago, September 2004).

Baggetta, M. 2002. Personal Frame Consistency and Individual Mobilization. Paper presented at Authority in Contention: Collective Behavior and Social Movement Mini-Conference (University of Notre Dame, August 2002).

Baggetta, M. 2002. Personal Frame Consistency and Individual Mobilization. Paper presented at Aage Sorenson Memorial Harvard-Oxford-Stockholm Conference (Harvard University, May 2002).

Myers, D., Walls, N., Jones, K., Baggetta, M. 2001. Violence in the Movement: Rioting and Public Opinion in Four Cities. 1967-1968. Paper presented at the 2001 Midwest Sociological Society Annual Meeting (St. Louis, April 2001).

Baggetta, M. 2000. Frame Development and Alignment: Birmingham, Alabama – 1968. Paper presented at the 2000 Midwest Sociological Society Annual Meeting (Chicago, April 2000).

PUBLISHED BOOK REVIEWS

Baggetta, M. 2005. Review of Environmental Movements in Minority and Majority Worlds: A Global Perspective by Timothy Doyle. Mobilization 10(2):314-315.

RESEARCH REPORTS

To Sierra Club Board of Directors, Council of Club Leaders, and National Convention Delegates. National Purpose, Local Action: Final Report. Andrew, K., Ganz, M., Baggetta, M., Han, H., Lim, C. (San Francisco, September 2005).

To Sierra Club Board of Directors. National Purpose, Local Action: Final Report Preview. Andrew, K., Ganz, M., Baggetta, M., Han, H., Lim, C. (Halifax, Nova Scotia, July 2005).

To Sierra Club Board of Directors and Council of Club Leaders. National Purpose, Local Action: Preliminary Report. Andrew, K., Ganz, M., Baggetta, M., Han, H., Lim, C. (San Francisco, September 2004).

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

National Purpose, Local Action: A Study of the Sierra Club. Co-PI's: Marshall Ganz and Kenneth Andrews
Project Manager. 2003-2006

Assisted with a multi-year study of the Sierra Club's state-level Chapters and local-level Groups including collaborating on the design of a telephone survey of Chapter/Group chairpersons and paper questionnaires of volunteer leaders, overseeing data coding, analyzing data, writing reports, and presenting findings. See above for publications, reports, and papers.

North Carolina Environmental Movement Organizations Study. PI's: Kenneth Andrews and Bob Edwards
Harvard Sociology Research Apprenticeship. 2002-2003

Assembled organization list for sampling frame. Assisted with data coding and analysis. Results published in Mobilization.

The Rise of the Chief Financial Officer. PI's: Dirk Zorn and Frank Dobbin

Research Assistant. Summer 2003

Researched and coded longitudinal reference data on major corporations and their chief financial officers. Results published in the American Sociological Review.

Notre Dame Research Workshop on Riots and Protests. PI: Daniel Myers

Research Assistant. 1999-2001

Coded and entered newspaper data from the late 1960s on collective violence effects. Refined coding procedures. Analyzed qualitative interview data. Results published in the American Sociological Review and Mobilization.

Frame Consistency Project. Advisor: Daniel Myers

Undergraduate Thesis and Related Projects: 2000-2001

Analyzed qualitative interview data and survey data originally collected in the late 1960s to identify the ways in which individuals framed issues of race, protest, policing, and violence, and the consistency within individuals on these dimensions.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Harvard College, Department of Sociology, Cambridge, MA

Junior Tutorial Instructor. Sociology 98B: Civic Organizations in American Democracy, Spring 2007-8

Designed syllabus and taught seminar on associations, interest groups, and social movement organizations and their effects to third-year Sociology concentrators.

Harvard College, Department of Sociology, Cambridge, MA

Senior Tutorial Instructor. Sociology 99s: Senior Thesis Workshop, Fall 2007

Designed syllabus and taught weekly research workshop for senior thesis writers.

John F. Kennedy School of Government, Cambridge, MA

Harvard College, Standing Committee on Degrees in the study of Environmental Science and Public Policy.

Teaching Fellow. Environmental Justice as a Public Policy Issue (Prof. James Hoyte). Fall 2003-7

Assisted with syllabus development and teaching of cross-listed advanced policy seminar on environmental justice and environmental policy to graduate students and advanced undergraduates.

Harvard College, Standing Committee on Degrees in the study of Women, Gender, and Sexuality. Cambridge, MA
Junior Tutorial Instructor. Culture, Identity, and Gender in “Performance.” Spring 2005
Designed syllabus and taught one-on-one tutorial on the performance of gender in staged performances and in daily life and the relationship between the two for professional performers.

Harvard College, Department of Sociology, Cambridge, MA
Teaching Fellow. Sociology 153: Media and the American Mind (Prof. Jason Kaufman). Spring 2004
Taught two discussion sections of introductory-level course on culture and media.

RELATED INSTRUCTIONAL AND ADVISING EXPERIENCE

Harvard College, Winthrop House, Cambridge, MA
Resident Tutor, 2002-present
Provided academic advising to Sociology and other social science concentrators, academic and non-academic advising to 40 entryway residents per year, and pre-concentration advising to 10 sophomores per year (2007-present).

Harvard University, Department of Sociology, Cambridge, MA
Research Assistant Coordinator. The Boston Area Choral Societies Study. Fall 2007, Spring 2008
Recruited, interviewed, hired, trained, and supervised undergraduate research assistants in data entry activities.

Harvard Business School, Boston, MA
Exam Grader. Fall 2008. Leadership and Organizational Behavior (Professor Robert Kaplan).
Graded 180 case study exams for required MBA course on organizational behavior, structure, culture, and leadership.

Derek Bok Center for Teaching and Learning, Harvard University, Cambridge, MA
Invited Presenter and Moderator. Winter Teaching Conference, 2007
Presented teaching preparation and grading strategies and moderated discussion in session entitled “How to TF Without it Taking Over Your Life” for new and returning teaching fellows.

Harvard College, Standing Committee on Degrees in the study of Women, Gender, and Sexuality. Cambridge, MA
Senior Thesis Advisor. Fall 2005, Spring 2006
Student: Emma Katz. Thesis Title: “The Queen’s Company: Women Performing Masculinity On and Off Stage.”
Thesis Grade: magna cum laude

Hauser Center for Nonprofit Organizations, John F. Kennedy School of Government, Cambridge, MA
Research Assistant Coordinator. National Purpose, Local Action. (Co-PI’s: Marshall Ganz, Kenneth Andrews). 2003-5
Recruited, interviewed, hired, trained, and supervised undergraduate research assistants in data entry activities.

University of Notre Dame, Department of Sociology, South Bend, IN Research Assistant Trainer. Research Workshop on Riots and Protests (PI: Daniel Myers), 1999-2001
Trained new research assistants in data coding and entry activities.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

American Sociological Association, 2008 Annual Meeting, Boston, MA
Roundtable Presider. Collective Behavior and Social Movements Section, Roundtable 21: “Mobilizing Resources”

American Journal of Sociology - Ad hoc reviewer. 2007-present

Mobilization - Ad hoc reviewer. 2006-present

Harvard University, Department of Sociology

Graduate Student Organization President, (elected position) 2006-7

Represented graduate student interests and concerns with Department Chair, Director of Graduate Studies, and other faculty. Coordinated and oversaw graduate student participation on department committees on Graduate Degrees, Undergraduate Degrees, Junior Faculty Search, and Graduate Admissions. Assisted with GSO Professional Development Program. Coordinated with department Representatives to school-wide Graduate Student Council.

Graduate Student Organization, active member, 2005-present

Participated in internal department research efforts, GSO program development initiatives, and the organization and implementation of GSO activities.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

American Sociological Association

ASA Sections: Political Sociology; Collective Behavior and Social Movements; Environment and Technology; Organizations, Occupations, and Work.

Eastern Sociological Society

REFERENCES

Robert J. Sampson

Henry Ford II Professor of the Social Sciences
Sociology Department Chair
Harvard University, Department of Sociology
670 William James Hall
33 Kirkland Street
Cambridge, MA 02138
617-496-9716
rsampson@wjh.harvard.edu

Christopher Winship

Diker-Tishman Professor of Sociology
Director of Graduate Studies
Harvard University, Department of Sociology
620 William James Hall
33 Kirkland Street
Cambridge, MA 02138
617-495-9821
chris_winship@harvard.edu

Marshall Ganz

Lecturer in Public Policy
Hauser Center for Nonprofit Organizations
John F. Kennedy School of Government
Mailbox 143
79 J.F.K. Street
Cambridge, MA 02138
617-495-0996
marshall_ganz@ksg.harvard.edu